¹ The gross and net expense ratio reflects the contractual management fee and all other annual fund operating expenses per the most recently filed prospectus and excludes the effect of voluntary management fee waivers and expense reimbursements undertaken by PNC Capital Advisors, LLC (the "Adviser").

² As of the last business day of the period.

³ The 7-day current yield is based on net income during the 7-day period ended 2/28/18. The 7-day effective yield is based on compounding the 7-day net income.

Performance shown is past performance. Current performance may be lower or higher than that show here. Please visit our website at pncfunds.com to obtain performance current to the most recent month-end. Past performance does not guarantee future results. Investment return and principal value will fluctuate so that shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost.

On March 1, 2018 PNC Advantage Funds (the "Trust") reorganized PNC Advantage Institutional Treasury Money Market Fund (the "Fund") into PNC Treasury Plus Money Market Fund, a newly created series of PNC Funds, a Delaware statutory trust (the "PNC Funds Trust"). PNC Treasury Plus Money Market Fund has principal investment strategies identical to those of the Fund and is managed by the same investment adviser and portfolio management team as the Fund. In addition, the respective share classes of PNC Treasury Plus Money Market Fund assumed the performance, financial and other historical information of the Fund.

4 Principal stability fund (money market fund) rating provided by S&P Global Ratings. The rating represents its opinions as to the quality of the securities it rates and not the shares of the Funds. Ratings are relative and subjective, are not absolute standards of quality, not recommendations to purchase, sell, or hold a security and are based on current unaudited financial information furnished to the rating agency by the Funds. For information on rating methodologies, please visit the agency website at https://www.standardandpoors.com/en_US/web/quest/home. Ratings are measured on a scale that ranges from AAA^m (highest) to Dm (lowest).

5 National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) is a U.S. organization of insurance regulators. NAIC Designations are used by the NAIC Securities Valuation Office to denote a category of credit quality, ranging from NAIC level 1 (highest quality) to NAIC level 6 (lowest quality). NAIC 1 is assigned to obligations exhibiting the highest quality with credit risk at its lowest and the issuer's credit profile is stable. The NAIC designations are not an endorsement and should not be considered by non-members in their investment decisions. For more information on the methodology visit www.naic.org.

You should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses of PNC Funds carefully before investing. A prospectus or summary prospectus with this and other information may be obtained at 800-622-FUND (3863) or pncfunds.com. The prospectus should be read carefully before investing.
